

INTERNATIONAL POLICE ASSOCIATION Section Czech Republic

International Youth Gathering 2012

Obligations, Terms & Conditions & Parental Consent

1. OBLIGATION OF THE APPLICANT – TERMS AND CONDITIONS

You are going abroad as a representative for your country and your IPA National Section will be judged according to the way you conduct yourself. You should therefore remember that you are an ambassador and as such, you are responsible for your conduct and general behaviour.

The object of the trip is to bring you into contact with persons from other countries so that you will get to know their way of life and culture. In that way helping to promote better understanding between peoples in the best traditions of the International Police Association. You should therefore try to establish and afterwards maintain contact with your new friends.

Every participant will be required to pen an account of their experience during this Youth Gathering.

Participants are prohibited from consuming tobacco, alcohol and other drugs. You will not be permitted to drive a motor vehicle while under the control of the International Youth Gathering. You will immediately be sent home should the Organisers decide that your actions and conduct are not in the spirit of the International Police Association.

Those who do not agree with these guidelines and are not prepared to conform should not apply for the International Youth Gathering.

2. APPLICANT'S AGREEMENT:

I, the undersigned applicant, hereby acknowledge that I have read the above Terms and Conditions of the International Youth Gathering and agree to honour them without exception. I further understand that during my period of residence with the International Youth Gathering, I will be under the full control of and responsible to, the Organising Committee.
